To: Our Key Stakeholders,

Durri Aboriginal Medical Service has been informed that Richard John Kennedy has been arrested on personal fraud charges unrelated to our business. We want to assure our community and stakeholders that our operations and finances are secure and unaffected.

Key Facts:

- The alleged fraud is personal and separate from Durri.
- Mr Kennedy has been removed as Chairperson of Durri.
- No financial links exist between Mr Kennedy and our service or operations.
- This incident does not reflect the ethical standards or practices of our organisation.

Our commitment to integrity and governance remains unwavering. We continue to deliver excellence in our health services and maintain the trust of our stakeholders.

As this is an ongoing legal matter pertaining to an individual's personal affairs, we are unable to comment further on the specifics of the case.
